

MCQ Answer sheet

NAME:

Introduction

1. If you see poor sharps handling, you may

ANSWER _____

2. When using the sheep cadaver

ANSWER _____

Vortex MCQ Part 1

1. The leading cause of Anaesthetic related mortality in the 10th triennial report into anaesthetic deaths was:

ANSWER _____

2. A thorough airway examination must be done on every patient in order to:

ANSWER _____

Education session 2: Vortex part 2

3. Human factors are important in a CICO situation because:

ANSWER _____

4. Ready, set, go:

ANSWER _____

Elaine Bromiley video 1

1. At what point does the vortex suggest the Anaesthetist should have called for help?
 - A. After she failed to insert the LMA on the third attempt
 - B. After she failed to bag mask ventilate on the third attempt
 - C. When the sats started dropping
 - D. 4. Before she started the anaesthetic due to the patients risk factors
2. After the teams 3 best attempts at LMA, 3 best attempts at BMV and 3 best attempts at Intubation, what should be their next move?
 - A. Fibreoptic airway

- B. Miller blade
- C. Video laryngoscope
- D. CICO rescue

ANSWER _____

Elaine Bromiley video 2

1. What do you attribute to making the 'what if' situation so much less stressful to watch than the original?

- A. A structured approach to management of the unanticipated difficult airway
- B. Good leadership
- C. Good communication
- D. All of the above

ANSWER _____